CODE FOR INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

[In terms of Section 149(8) read with Schedule IV of the Companies Act, 2013]

The Code for Independent Directors is a guide to professional conduct for Independent Directors. Adherence to these standards by Independent Directors, and fulfilment of their responsibilities in a professional and faithful manner will promote confidence of the investment community, particularly minority shareholders, regulators and companies in the institution of Independent Directors.

I. Guidelines of professional conduct

Independent Directors shall:

- (1) Uphold ethical standards of integrity and probity;
- (2) Act objectively and constructively while exercising their duties;
- (3) Exercise their responsibilities in a bona fide manner in the interest of the Company;
- (4) Devote sufficient time and attention to their professional obligations for informed and balanced decision making;
- (5) Not allow any extraneous considerations that will vitiate their exercise of objective independent judgment in the paramount interest of the Company as a whole, while concurring in or dissenting from the collective judgment of the Board in its decision making;
- (6) Not abuse their position to the detriment of the Company or its shareholders, or for the purpose of gaining direct or indirect personal advantage or advantage for any associated person;
- (7) Refrain from any action that would lead to loss of their independence;
- (8) Where circumstances arise which make an Independent Director lose their independence, the Independent Director must immediately inform the Board accordingly;
- (9) Assist the Company in implementing the best corporate governance practices.

II. Role and functions

Independent Directors shall:

- (1) Help in bringing an independent judgment to bear on the Board's deliberations, especially on issues of strategy, performance, risk management, resources, key appointments and standards of conduct;
- (2) Bring an objective view in the evaluation of the performance of Board and Management;
- (3) Scrutinise the performance of Management in meeting agreed goals and objectives, and monitor the reporting of performance;
